FINAL ANNOUNCEMENT

THE FIRST ROTTERDAM SYMPOSIUM ON CANCER AND SEXUALITY

Erasmus MC, University Medical Center, supported by the International Society for Sexuality and Cancer (ISSC)

Oncosexology: A new discipline?

Tuesday, July 11th, 2006
Netherlands Architecture Institute
Rotterdam, the Netherlands

www.issc.nu

Dear colleagues, dear friends

It gives us a great pleasure to invite you all to the First Rotterdam Symposium on Cancer and Sexuality that will be held in the Netherlands Architecture Institute (NAi), Rotterdam, The Netherlands, on July 11th, 2006.

We are proud that for the first time a whole day is dedicated to cancer, its treatment and the consequences on sexual functioning, in both males and females. We believe the symposium will give health-care providers from different disciplines, cultures and nationalities the possibility to share their knowledge and expertise on this challenging topic. This day is initiated by the Departments of Gynaecology & Obstetrics and Urology of the Erasmus MC, that at this occasion say Farewell to Woet Gianotten, M.D., medical sexologist. He has dedicated much of his work on sexuality and cancer at the Erasmus MC, and internationally. We are thankful to him for all he has done (and probably will continue to do!) for the field. This symposium is supported by the International Society for Sexuality and Cancer (ISSC), a new multidisciplinary international society formed to focus on this important area of clinical care.

The symposium precedes the prestigious meeting of the International Academy of Sex Research that will follow in Amsterdam, The Netherlands, from July 12th to 15th, 2006. This will be a great occasion to attend two important events in one time in the country of van Gogh, Rembrandt and much more!

There is no registration fee, though you need to register by faxing or mailing the attached form by June 15th. The number of delegates is limited to 130, so please register on time (first come, first served).

CME points granted by the NVRO (5) and the NVU (5). NVOG and NVVS on request.

We look forward to welcoming you all in Rotterdam and to be part of this regarding and memorable scientific experience.

On behalf of the Scientific Committee,

Luca Incrocci, M.D., Ph.D.

Marjo Ramakers, M.D.
